BREATHE

All the signals sent and lost
 One last border never crossed
 All the dead-ends and the questions
 Not worth asking

All the sorrow you can't save
 From a candle to the grave
 Lost chances and the answers
 Still blowing in the wind

Breathe In, Breathe
 A new day is a reason to believe

All the love songs on the shelf
 Midnight talking with yourself
 When no one's in the room
 And you need a shoulder

Not enough or much too late
 The shame and the twists of fate
 And the voices screaming out
 The ugly truth that cuts your soul

Breathe In, Breathe
 A new day is a reason to believe
 Breathe out, Breathe
 A new day is another love to give

Bare hands against the stones
 All together, all alone
 Living back against the wall
 Trying to change the unchangeable

Mornings running out of tears
 When the days become the years
 After everything you've known's gone
 And you're still standing here

Breathe In, Breathe
 A new day is a reason to believe
 Breathe out, Breathe
 A new day is another love to give

A sign to stop the rain
 Just a word to ease the pain
 Hands full of keys, another door...

SONGS WE'LL NEVER SING

I guess it's time to face the facts
 Another road, a new dead end
 You saved the days, I spent the nights
 We were a blast, now we're a shame

When did it all go up in smoke ?
 And why should anybody care ?
 Who's ever passed the test of time ?
 How long 'til we run out of air ?

Tomorrow we can cry
 But before we say goodbye, let's raise our glass to

The good and the bad, the laughter and the tears
 The rage, the distance and the years
 All the wrong turns we could take
 Let's have another one for

The scores and the scars, the sunshine and the rain
 The work, the fortune and the pain
 To a thousand broken dreams
 To the songs we'll never sing

Before we start the same ol'dance
 And play the part we know so well
 Let's take a breath, let's take a chance
 And break out from this prison cell

No think it over one more time, it simply wasn't meant to be I'll take the blame, you take your pride
 We're only human you and me

Tomorrow we can cry
 But before we say goodbye, let's raise our glass to

The good and the bad, the laughter and the tears
 The rage, the distance and the years
 All the wrong turns we could take
 Let's have another one for

The scores and the scars, the sunshine and the rain
 The work, the fortune and the pain
 To a thousand broken dreams
 To the songs we'll never sing

To the songs we'll never sing
 To the bad songs we'll never sing

AM4ZING

Speak loud enough, caus' everyone
 Wants to hear your story
 Bleed in the end, they will love
 Steal another moment

Feel the sun alive like a naked dancer
 Make no plans tonight
 Happy plastic people

It's been a long journey but here we are
 Who would believe you'd climb the mountain
 What can you wish for a shooting star ?
 Hurry it's getting close to 3 times 9

Show what you got, tho they won't cry
 'til they miss your face
 It's time to dig a hole and crack the sky
 You become amazing

Feel the sun alive like a naked dancer
 Make no plans tonight
 Happy plastic people

It's been a long journey but here we are
 Who would believe you'd climb the mountain
 What can you wish for a shooting star ?
 Hope you're getting more than 3 times 9

Feel the sun alive like a naked dancer
 Make no plans tonight
 Happy plastic people

It's been a long journey but here we are
 Who would believe you'd climb the mountain
 What can you wish for a shooting star ?
 Hurry cos' it's getting closer

It's been a long journey but here we are
 Who would believe you'd climb the mountain
 What can you wish for a shooting star ?
 Hope you're getting more than 3 times 9

P.A.B

It started with a laugh, ended up with a cry
 From the day that I met you 'til the day I die
 Lesson : You should never trust
 A million dollar smile
 But I guess that's how we learn, first you gotta try

I was on a lonely road, took the wrong turn
 Yeah, attracted to the flame I had to burn
 You can try'n replace me with the flick of a switch
 But you'll remember my name
 You little punk ass bitch

I got a four letter word,
 That goes along with you
 It ain't what you wanna hear
 But it's what you gonna do
 Nasty but tasty, sugar you better run
 I 'm evil now it's time
 To win your place in the sun, so
 Get down, you little punk ass bitch

Took me by surprise, like a kick in the face
 I thought I knew where to go
 Now I'm all over the place
 Left with nothing I got nothing to lose
 They called you danger baby
 Should've checked out the news

Rotten to the core you got me down on my knees
 But you'll never see me no more begging please
 Each one of your touch's likes a stitch
 Now it's time for you to dance, little punk ass bitch

I got a four letter word,
 That goes along with you
 It ain't what you wanna hear
 But it's what you gonna do
 Nasty but tasty, sugar you better run
 I 'm evil now it's time
 To win your place in the sun, so
 Get down, you little punk ass bitch
 Get down, you little punk ass bitch

BALI

Talk for hours 'til the morning
 Catch the sunrise in your car
 My castle for a glass of red wine
 Burn some encense and be fine

We could spend the night in Bali
 Watch the future in your eyes
 Never make it to the third page
 Jump before we learn to fly
 Before we learn to fly

Safe and sound across the ocean
 Find some new ways to be free
 A blanket on a desert island
 Taste your skin and lose my sleep

We could lose ourselves in Bali
 Grab a spoon and spend the day
 Take a shower in the jungle
 Kiss and dance the night away
 Dance the night away

We could find ourselves in Bali
 Raise a dream and choose to stay
 Meet me when the storm is over
 Home is just a life away

HUMMINGBIRD

Part time desperate sad and lonely
 Now you tell me how you feel
 Who can promise fame and glory
 It only matters if it's real

Me, I'm just drawing circles
 Trying to make a perfect one
 Playing grown ups , waiting for a setting sun
 Singin' my song and I'm still searching for a word
 Have you ever tried to catch a hummingbird ?

I won't bow but I'm no leader
 There is not much I can do
 I can trust but I'm no believer
 You gotta find what's good for you

Me, I'm just still drawing circles
 Trying to make a perfect one
 Playing grown ups, waiting for a setting sun
 Singin' my song and I'm still searching for a word
 All my life I've been tryin' to catch a hummingbird

For a time I closed the windows
 But I never locked the door
 You can find me if you need a helping hand
 I won't save you from yourself
 But you can always count on me, just like before

I'm not a man on a mission
 What you get is what you see
 I can't give you any reason
 But you can have a drink with me

And I'm still drawing circles
 Trying to make a perfect one
 Playing grown ups, waiting for a setting sun
 Singin' my song and I'm still searching for a word
 Have you ever tried to catch a hummingbird ?
 Have you ever tried to catch a hummingbird ?
 All my life I've been tryin' to catch a hummingbird

FOLLOW THE MOON

Play hard to get with the beautiful ones
 Wasting money and time it's OK
 I'm a desert, I'm a trouble magnet
 Nothing comes my way

Don't ask me how or when I came along
 Caus' I just let the last one die
 You don't have to speak if you feel too weak
 To make up a brand new lie

Asleep at the wheel
 Nothin' is real
 Always a life too soon
 All my devils wear your name
 I am tired of the rain
 So I follow the moon
 I follow the moon

What would you do if you stood in my shoes ?
 I'm alive when they're staring at me
 Everything's alright but don't turn out the light
 And I'll show what I want you to see

Leave me alone I bite when I'm down,
 In my dreams I won't hurt anyone
 Who will be there when I come undone ?
 Who's gonna cry when the time has come ?

Asleep at the wheel
 Nothing is real
 Always a life too soon
 All my devils wear your name
 I am tired of the rain
 So I follow the moon
 I follow the moon

HOUSE ON FIRE

You're searching for tomorrow
 With your head stuck in the sand
 Hands full still starving

There's poison in your water
 And anger in the air
 How small we are, too many too far...

How can you keep
 On dancin' so close to the flames ?
 How can you keep on lyin'
 When regrets soon will be all that remains
 Can't you see our house is on fire

We're staring at the mirror
 But no-one takes the blame
 Killers at the wheel

Callin' all the angels
 Who're callin' out your name
 Soon out of time, silence our crime

How can you keep
 On dancin' so close to the flames ?
 How can you keep on lyin'
 When regrets soon will be all that remains

How can you keep
 On dancin' so close to the flames ?
 Panic 'cause our house is on fire

How can you keep
 On dancin' so close to the flames ?
 How can you keep on lyin'
 When regrets soon will be all that remains

How can you keep
 On dancin' so close to the flames ?
 How can you keep on lyin'
 When regrets soon will be all that remains
 Can't you see our house is on fire

Can't you see our house is on fire

EMILIA

Emilia it's raining but the sun will shine again
Can you hear the pounding of a heart
That calls your name ?

It's beating to the rythm of your dreams
Sometimes the future just ain't what it seems
A better place for the kings and the queens
So dry your tears

Emilia the weight of the world
On your shoulder
Can you feel the love inside your arms
When you hold her ?

You're strong enough,
Don't give up on your star
The world will find out who you really are Someday those silly words will seem so far
So far...

Emilia it's raining but the sun will shine again
Can you hear the pounding of a heart
That calls your name...

HIDE

Party with my friends, Spring is here again
Playing with my favorite words and colors
Smile and join the toast, love it just because Life goes on I guess behind the window

Speak without a sound, no one else around
Catch my breath before I go to sleep

Quiet in my zone, I'd rather be alone
Cause I dont wanna be scared anymore

Don't ask if you don't want to ear a lie...

Fight with the voice in my head
Something you don't understand
It's there in my dreams since you are
A battlescar, my battlescar

Nobody turns off the lights
Silence a scream in the night
Mirrors are calling the ghosts
Don't strike the pose, don't strike the pose

Here I know, it seems so long ago
But something in my mind remains
Can you say you took the pain away
Why do I still have to run & hide ?

Poison the touch of my skin
Stop it before it begins
Watch my steps I will not fall
No one to call, no one to call

Here I know, it seems so long ago
But something in my mind remains
Can you say you took the pain away
Why do I still have to run & hide ?

Don't ask if you don't wanna hear a lie...
